

VOL. 2. NO. 411.

WASHINGTON, D. C., THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1895--SIX PAGES.

ONE CENT.

KILLED THE WRONG MAN

Train Robber Mistook Him for the Gang's Betrayer.

MURDERER KILLED IN TUN

Officers Pursued the Thieves and Fatally Shot Robber Farrell, After a Hot Chase, in Which There Was Plenty of Firing—Rau Was Killed Instead of His Employer.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 1.—Two men fatally shot and one seriously injured in the result of a frustrated attempt to rob a Burlington train coming into this city.

For some days past a gang of tough characters have been hanging around St. Joseph, a suburb of this city, and last night information was brought to the Burlington officials that the Omaha express was to be looted.

William Haug, a hotel man, furnished the information, and the officers sent a posse who frustrated the design.

Late this evening, while Richard Jan, an employee of Haug, was sitting in the bar of Haug's place, Thomas Farrell, one of the gang, stepped inside the door while his partner, who gives the name of David Howard, watched on the outside.

KILLED WITHOUT WARNING.

Farrell stepped up to Haug and without a word, shot him through the stomach, inflicting a fatal wound. As Farrell ran out the door he called to his partner:

"I have shot the wrong man."

He realized he had failed to get the man who had given the information.

Several citizens started in pursuit of the two men, who ran out on the railroad tracks towards the city. A number of shots were fired by both parties, but without effect. As the fugitives neared the bridge over the tracks, Officer Barry and two other officers, Franz and Shon, who were on duty at this time, and a battle ensued, during which several shots were fired.

FORTY SHOTS FIRED.

Carson covered Howard with a revolver and forced him to surrender. Officer Barry attempted to capture Farrell, who whipped out two revolvers and began shooting, killing the officer through the arm.

Then Farrell dashed into the woods, followed by Barry and two other officers, Franz and Shon, who were on duty at this time, and a battle ensued, during which several shots were fired.

Farrell was finally shot through the left breast, the bullet passing through his lungs, and he is in a dying condition. Farrell is supposed to have had from St. Louis, while Howard's residence is so far unknown, as he refused to talk.

TESTING OREGON'S ARMOR.

Eighteen-inch Plate Fired At With Twelve and Thirteen-inch Guns.

There was a ballistics test yesterday at the Indian Head proving grounds of an 18-inch nickel steel Harveyized plate, representing 306 tons, about half of the side armor for the battleship Oregon. The plate was made by the Carnegie Company, and the trial was a success.

The first shot, fired by a 12-inch gun, went at a velocity of 1,465 feet per second, penetrated the plate about seven inches and then shattered. The second shot, with a velocity of 1,326 feet per second, penetrated the same distance and broke up, but cracked the plate from top to bottom on one side.

So far the plate behaved almost exactly the same as the 18-inch Bethlehem plate tried last week, although the crack was not quite so wide.

The plate passed on this test, but to determine further its power of resisting shot, a 13-inch gun was brought to bear upon the remainder and a shot was fired with a velocity of 1,510 feet.

The result was a crack about five inches wide in the plate, but the shot was kept on, which was regarded as highly satisfactory.

HE SHOT TO KILL.

Robert Williams Attempted the Life of Rev. James H. Johnson.

That Rev. James H. Johnson, a colored ally secretary, is not dead is not the fault of Robert Williams, a notorious Freeman's ally character. The latter individual is now in prison in No. 2 station house with the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill the former.

It appears that Mr. Johnson for some time has been in Williams' disfavour. Jealousy of a girl, living in the colored preacher's house, caused Williams, it is alleged, to attack Johnson. He was arrested several times, but last night he would have murdered openly attempted the life of Johnson.

With pistol in hand, Johnson went to the apartments of Williams, in Freeman's alley, and threatened to shoot the colored girl, whose name is Laura Porgon. Johnson then shot at the girl, but she escaped. Williams, who was in the room, then shot at Johnson, but he was not hurt. Johnson then fled, but Police Officer Auldridge came up at that time and captured him.

At the station, Williams frankly said he shot to kill and had been "laying for the religious" — the whole evening.

BURNING MIDNIGHT OIL.

Students of Georgetown College Preparing for Examinations.

The members of the graduating class of the medical department of the Georgetown University are burning many gallons of midnight oil in preparing for the competitive examination, which takes place at Jefferson Hospital on May 6.

The graduates and those who will shortly receive their diplomas are eligible to compete in this examination, those two who receive the highest and next highest averages in which will be awarded the positions of Junior Assistant Resident and Extra respectively on the General Hospital staff.

The schedule of examinations at the law department of the University has been announced. On Wednesday, May 22, the students will be examined in Equity Pleading and Practice; on Thursday, 23d, in the law of Bills and Notes; on Saturday, 25th, in Evidence; on Tuesday, 26th, in the law of Corporations; on Wednesday, 27th, in the law of Torts. The commencement will be held on Monday, June 10.

Carl Browne Once More.

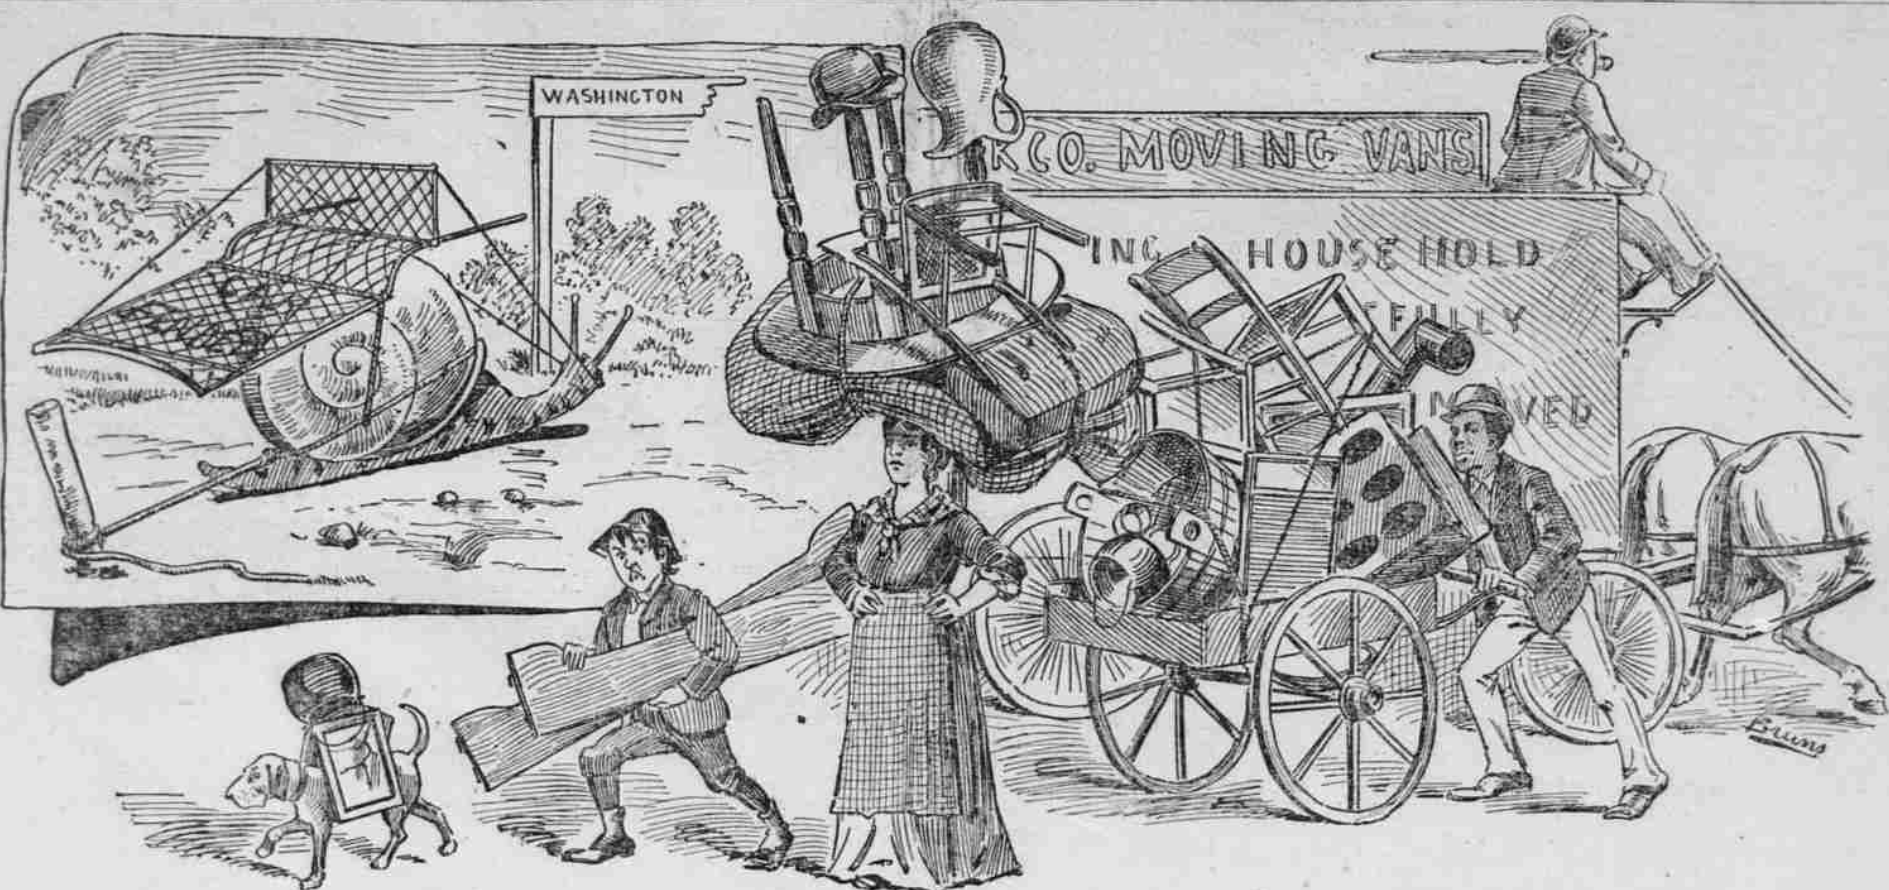

Ex-Minister Carl Browne, of Commonwealth, arrived in the city yesterday and last night delivered a pyrotechnic address at the Typographical Temple.

The hall contained less than fifty people when he began to talk. About six of the number were women.

Representative Hitt's Condition.

It was said at Representative Hitt's house last night that there was no change in his condition from that of yesterday.

Only nineteen days remain in which to get a "Times" gift book with a monthly subscription. Better subscribe now.

Charges Were in Order Everywhere Yesterday Except on the Front of Street Cars.

SHE FETCHED MR. DAVIS

Miss McCall Wrote the Lawyer's $25,000 Insurance Policy.

MEN HAD TRIED, BUT FAILED

She Is a Business Lady and Was Called in As a Last Resort by the New York Life Insurance Company. Now She Is Suing the Company for Her Commission.

Henry E. Davis, the lawyer, chairman, college professor, former Assistant District Attorney and one of Washington's "400," was one time a shining star for insurance men.

For months they used every exertion tried at their hand, but they failed to get him to sign a policy.

They submitted all sorts of "touting" plans, 20-year policies, preferred risks, and all sorts of other inducements, but he would not sign a policy.

With a woman's confidence, backed by a $25,000 policy, she was called in as a last resort by the New York Life Insurance Company.

She fetched Mr. Davis, and he signed a policy for $25,000, which was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

The policy was for $25,000, and it was the only one of the kind that he had ever signed.

MINERS ARE DETERMINED

Fifteen Thousand Will Force Pocahontas Men to Join Their Strike.

If the Latter Do Not Quit Work Willingly Bloodshed May Result—Arms and Ammunition in Plenty.

Bluefield, W. Va., May 1.—The strike is on in the West Virginia coal fields along the Norfolk & Western Railroad. Not a mine is in operation.

Fifteen thousand miners met at Keystone today to organize and perfect measures to induce the force of the Pocahontas, Va., men to join the strike.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No dissatisfaction exists among these Virginia miners, as they have not been out. The delegation is expected to arrive in Pocahontas to-night. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

No shipments of coal are being made at Bluefield. The cut of 20 per cent in wages was never contemplated by the Virginia companies and there are only a few union men among them. In the event of a refusal to join in the strike force will doubtless be attempted, and both sides are determined.

The citizens of Pocahontas will aid the home miners, and they have ample arms and ammunition. The West Virginia miners are swarming into Virginia on every train, and the situation is alarming.

BUCHANAN STILL HOPES

Another Week's Respite From the Electric Chair.

SIX MONTHS, HE THOUGHT

His Lawyer Says Appeal to the United States Supreme Court Acts as a Stay of Execution and Removes His Client From the Jurisdiction of the State.

New York, May 1.—Buchanan's lawyers are still fighting hard to save him from the electric chair. Deputy Attorney General Hushkoff's advice to Warden Sage not to execute the condemned man to-day, and which is to stay the execution, greatly encouraged Attorney Gibbons and his associates.

They attach no importance to the respite of a week which Gov. Morton has granted the prisoner at the request of District Attorney Gibbons.

Mr. Gibbons claims that Buchanan is no longer under the control of the State authorities, but is now in the hands of the federal officials. His appeal to the United States Supreme Court, the lawyer says, served to remove the condemned man from the jurisdiction of the State.

BECHANAN PUZZLED.

The failure of Warden Sage to execute Buchanan at 11 o'clock to-day, at which hour it was claimed by the State authorities, the governor's respite of the previous week expired, was a respite of the force of the appeal and effectually prevents the warden from carrying out the death sentence until the case has been reviewed and passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States.

Warden Sage visited Dr. Buchanan at his cell this afternoon. Buchanan looked surprised when the warden arrived, and said as he came to the front of the cell:

"Any news, warden?" "Yes," answered Mr. Sage, "the governor has respite you for a week from to-day."

For a moment Buchanan was a puzzled look on his face and then he said: "That's all right, warden. I thought I had six months."

He hesitated and said: "Well, Buchanan, you must interpret the thing yourself. I have had a bare announcement and don't know the exact meaning. You must make up your own mind what it means."

The condemned man is evidently much perturbed over the news.

EXECUTED AS A COWARD.

Lieut. Valentino Gallego Shot for Surrendering Fifty Soldiers.

Havana, Cuba, May 1.—Lieutenant Valentino Gallego, who surrendered fifty Spanish soldiers to the rebels and who was afterwards captured and turned over to the military authorities here, was, after trial by court-martial, sentenced to be shot.

This sentence was carried out to-day in the fortress of Cabana here.

Lieutenant Gallego should not be confounded with Lieutenant Benjamin Gallego of the Peninsular regiment, who was recently tried by court-martial and shot at Santiago de Cuba, for allowing the rebels to surprise him in a station at Juncagua city.

In approving the sentence of the court-martial, which condemned Lieut. Valentino Gallego to death, Captain General Martinez de Campos issued a proclamation, in which he said that it was the first time in the history of his military life that he had known a Spanish officer to be executed as a coward.

Lieut. Valentino Gallego's execution was conducted with the usual military ceremonies and he personally gave the order for the firing squad to shoot.

The Captain General has left here for Matanzas, Cardenas, Santa Clara and Sagua, where he will visit the yachts, the Villa Genoa, at Manzanillo.

Pretty Seriously Cut.

Emma Washington, a colored resident of Willow Tree alley southwest, was badly cut last night during a fight in which it seems that there were several participants.

POISONED HER PATIENTS

Dr. Alberta Oberlin Advertised to Pull Teeth Without Pain.

SHE DID SO, BUT ALL WHO WERE OPERATED UPON ARE SERIOUSLY ILL AND ONE IS DYING.

Fort Scott, Kan., May 1.—At Hyattsville, a small village near here, over half a dozen people, including the Methodist minister, have been poisoned, some of them perhaps fatally, by medicine administered by a traveling woman dentist, who has skipped town since the condition of her patients became known.

The dentist traveled under the name of Dr. Alberta Oberlin, and claimed to come from St. Louis. All the town is torn up in excitement over the affair, and telegrams have been sent in every direction in an endeavor to head off the woman, who is described as a "finger, remarkably handsome woman, of stylish and prepossessing appearance."

Dr. Oberlin came to town a few days ago, and, stopping at the main hotel, advertised herself as a "painless tooth extractor of St. Louis." Many of the most prominent people of the town answered her advertisement.

She applied to the gums of a number of her patients a liquid, soon after the operation the patients were unable to take food, their faces and hands became discolored, their tongues swollen and their stomachs affected.

When the condition of her patients became serious the woman quietly disappeared.

Ever since then the village doctors have been kept busy trying to alleviate the pain of the unfortunate, but to no avail, and today the prosecuting attorney was appealed to.

A warrant was immediately sworn out for the dentist's arrest, but she could not be found.

Miss Liddell is dying to-night, and it is feared some of the others may succumb before morning.

BLEW OUT GAS AND LIFE.

W. T. Loper, a Newspaper Man, Deceitfully Killed Himself.

W. T. Loper, a prominent newspaper man, in the employ of the United Press in New York City, committed suicide at the Arlington Hotel Tuesday night by inhaling illuminating gas from a burner in a bathroom adjoining the room occupied by him.

Mr. Loper reached the city about 9 o'clock Tuesday night, coming immediately to the Arlington, where he registered as "Theodore Williams, New York." He was assigned to room 250, and after leaving a note for Mr. Roscoe, proprietor of the hotel, and another for Mr. P. V. De Gray, general Southern manager of the United Press, he went upstairs, and was not seen again until his body was discovered in the bathroom about 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

After inspecting the body and investigating into the circumstances, Coroner Hammett was convinced that it was a deliberate suicide, and he accordingly issued a death certificate.

The body was removed to Spear's undertaking establishment, where it was embalmed, and Mr. De Gray at once notified the relatives of the deceased, who live in Oakbrook, Wis., which was also the home of Mr. Loper. Mr. Burris, a cousin of the deceased telegraphed to Mr. De Gray that he would start for Washington at once, and the body will probably be taken to Oakbrook Friday.

Mr. De Gray said that the letter addressed to him assigned no reasons whatever for the suicide, and he himself could conceive none.

PUT THE WOMAN OUT.

She Applauded For Woman's Suffrage in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

London, May 1.—During the debate this evening in the House of Commons on the bill to prevent false statements being made against candidates at parliamentary elections, Mr. Henry Labouchere, the Radical leader, began a speech by saying that he had hoped to find the House debating a woman's suffrage bill.

At this a lady in the gallery loudly applauded and thereby called down upon herself the wrath of the House.

An order was given for her immediate expulsion, which was promptly carried out.

Duma-Noyes Briefs Filed.

New York, May 1.—Briefs for the defense were filed to-day with Judge Brown, in the United States Circuit Court, in the matter of the removal to Washington of Charles A. Dana, indicted by the district court at Washington for libel upon Frank R. Noyes, treasurer and publisher of the Washington Star.

Ex-City Treasurer Short.

Eau Claire, Wis., May 1.—Mayor Day to-night caused the arrest of ex-City Treasurer Charles H. Greene for embezzling city funds. The amount of shortage is thought to be between $24,000 and $30,000.

Only nineteen days remain in which to get a "Times" gift book with a monthly subscription. Better subscribe now.

BISCHOFF IS DIVORCED

His Wife Granted a Decree, With $1,000 a Year Alimony.

CHILDREN STAY WITH HIM

Three Years Ago the Relations of the Couple Had Reached Such a Condition That Separation Was Agreed Upon—Final Suit Was Begun on Last Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Mary J. Bischoff was yesterday divorced from Prof. John W. Bischoff, organist of the First Congregational Church. She has been supporting herself by keeping a lodging-house at No. 736 Twelfth street northwest. The decree is drawn upon complaint of Mrs. Bischoff and in her favor. It gives her $1,000 a year alimony, costs of the suit and counsel fees.

Prof. Bischoff, though blind, is one of the leading musicians in the country, and has scores of former pupils in this city and throughout the United States.

It is three years nearly since their differences became so disagreeable to both that they agreed to separate. A paper was drawn up by Mr. J. J. Harrington as his attorney, and Mr. E. H. Thomas as his. By its terms they were to live apart.

SEPARATED BUT WERE FRIENDS.

He was to give up his interest in her estate, which consisted of a $7,000 mortgage on F Street real estate, and $1,300 invested at Fairview; also he agreed to pay her $30 a month.

The children were to remain with him and receive proper education. They were to visit their mother and she to visit them freely. The relations of husband and wife continued friendly.

In June, 1893, the $7,000 mortgage fell due and not paid. The property was sold and in the complicated Mrs. Bischoff's income was lost.

For eighteen months she struggled alone trying to make a living for herself, but her station as the wife of a man whose income was from $5,000 to $8,000 a year, finally determined her to seek a proper support.

The suit was brought on Christmas eve last. Testimony was taken before Walter Clephane. The case came on for a hearing before Judge Cox about two weeks ago, and he has since been considering the granting of a decree.

The friendly relations of the family are preserved by the fact that when a longer at Mrs. Bischoff's became troublesome last winter Prof. Bischoff was called in to have him dealt with, and their son, John E. Bischoff, represented his mother in court.

Prof. and Mrs. Bischoff were married twenty-five years ago. She was the daughter of Capt. Howard Vanegrit, then living at Carroll, Ill. They met at Fond du Lac, Wis., being drawn together by their love of music. The wedding was at her father's home.

They lived for a time in Chicago, but came here twenty years ago.

GEORGETOWN BOYS WIN.

They Defeated Boston College in An Intercollegiate Debate.

Boston, Mass., May 1.—The first intercollegiate debate between Catholic colleges in this country took place to-night at the hall of Boston College between representatives of Georgetown University, of Washington, D. C., and Boston College.

An audience of 1,500 persons listened to a discussion of the question: "Resolved, That the income tax law as passed by the last Congress is equitable."

Georgetown took the negative and Boston College the affirmative, and the judges, after an hour's consideration, awarded the debate to Georgetown.

Georgetown's colors were upheld by James W. Burke, '95, Charles E. Rouch, '95, and J. Neal Pomeroy, '96.

Textile Strike Grows.

Providence, R. I., May 1.—Additions to the ranks of the strikers at Olneyville to-day bring the number now out to over 7,000. The Atlantic mill strikers went to the mill in a body this afternoon and waited for James Whipple, one of their number, who went back to the dye-house to work, to come out. When he appeared they followed him and booed at him for several blocks, but no violence was attempted.

Bayard At a Banquet.

London, May 1.—The Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, American ambassador, presided to-night at the annual dinner of the King's College Hospital. A toast was offered to President Cleveland, to which Mr. Bayard responded.

May Day in New York City.

New York, May 1.—May Day was celebrated by the workers of New York city by a monster parade and mass-meeting in which it is estimated between ten and twelve thousand men and women participated.

CYCLONE'S AWFUL HAVOC

Six Persons Killed Outright and Several Fatally Hurt.

SWEEP ACROSS SIXTEEN MILES

Large Residences Torn Up and Carried Away by the Storm, Leaving Nothing But Debris—School Children Hurried Into a Cellar by Their Teacher, and Saved From Harm.

Wichita, Kas., May 1.—A special from Halstead, Kas., says: About 4.10 this afternoon a fearful cyclone devastated a strip of country several hundred yards wide and at least sixteen miles in length, killing six persons outright and seriously injuring several others, while many more received slight injuries.

The cyclone struck the house of Mrs. Fry, a widow lady, who lived about nine miles southwest of Halstead, completely destroying it and slightly injuring Mrs. Fry. It picked up the house of John Schmitzback and scattered it in every direction.

The fine two-story house of Joseph Weir was entirely swept away, killing Mrs. Joseph Weir, Grace Weir, aged eleven, Herman Weir, aged five, and a five-week-old baby.

Mr. Weir had previously left the house and when the cyclone struck it was about fifty yards away.

CLING TO A TREE.

He clung to a tree, but was badly injured by flying debris and will die. Joseph Weir, Jr., and sister, Maud, the only ones in the family who took to the cellar, escaped with only slight bruises.

The home of E. C. Caldwell, which was 100 yards to the west of the Weir home, was unroofed and one side torn away. The family escaped by taking to the cellar.

The next house in the path of the storm was William Armstrong's, which was completely wiped from the face of the earth. Mr. Armstrong was killed, Mrs. Armstrong seriously and perhaps fatally injured, and Gracia Chappin, who was there sick in bed, was killed.

About 100 yards east of the Armstrong home, the large two-story residence of B. E. Frazee was picked up, as was also a large two-story of J. F. Frazier across the road, and both, together with all the outbuildings, were completely swept away, leaving only enough debris to show that a house had stood there.

The families of both the Frazee's escaped from injury, with the exception of Mrs. J. F. Frazier, who was considerably bruised about the head.

A LEVEL-HEADED SCHOOL TEACHER.

The next place visited was the home of Capt. William White, which was only partly destroyed, one wing of the house being torn away. Across the road from White's, the home of Cyrus Hink was entirely carried away. Mr. Hink was received painful, but not seriously injured.

Specter Jones' house was in the line of the tornado and was carried away, as were also the homes of A. S. Powell, J. A. Comas, Andrew Thompson, and Messrs. Hoge, Miss Isley N. Neff, at Powell's house, was badly injured, as was Mrs. J. Comas.

At the Hoge district school the children had just been dismissed. Hoge saw the storm approaching and fearing its results, he rushed into the school and ordered the children to take refuge in the cellar.

His foresight prevented an awful catastrophe, for just as the last child had been safely stowed away in the cellar, the cyclone struck the house over them and demolished it. As it was, only one of them was even slightly injured.

The fury of the storm seems to have done its worst about five miles west of Halstead, where all six of the persons were killed. DEAD ANIMALS EVERYWHERE.

Near the Frazee home dead horses, cattle, hogs and chickens are scattered all over the wheat fields. Those who first saw the disaster coming say it made very slow progress, traveling not faster than a person could run.

It seemed to waft first in one direction then in another. As far as heard from this evening, a distance of eighteen miles across the country, from west to east, west, twenty residences, nearly all of them large ones, were completely destroyed.

The loss will not be less than $200,000, besides the six deaths and the injured, two or three of whom will probably die.

Physicians from Wichita went to the relief of the injured, and local assistance is given to the suffering families. A heavy body in the track of the storm lost everything, and outside aid will probably have to be called for.

FOR HIS WASHINGTON SON.

Mr. Cody Wanted Money That Attorney General Campbell Had Taken.

New York, May 1.—George T. Campbell, a lawyer of this city, and Miles Cody, a resident of Brooklyn, called at police headquarters this afternoon, where the lawyer told a strange story. Mr. Campbell said that some time ago Mr. Cody gave him $4,313 to keep until called for.